SUBJECT: Agreement

Attached is an Agreement between the City of Fort Collins and Justice Systems, Inc. (JSI). JSI is the company the City purchased our Court Record Management computer system from. Redflex, is the company the City has contracted with for the Camera Radar/Redlight Program. Under that contract Redflex is required to provide a Court Record Management computer system for that program. Redflex wants to interface with JSI for this. The attached Agreement allows JSI to work with Redflex to create that interface and clarifies that the City will not be liable for any cost associated with that work.
