Foot Notes:

When a development project involves a change of use for a building, the charge per square foot shall apply to the portion of the overall building size for which the change of use is proposed, provided that the new use generates more traffic than the existing use, as determined by the current Institute of Transportation Engineers Trip Generation. If the new use does not generate more traffic than the existing use then the charge per square foot for shall apply only to the net additional building size (if any).

These fees do not include the cost of filing fees for the recording of the Development Agreement. When a Development Agreement or Amendment Agreement is entered into the Developer shall be responsible for the cost of recording the document. Said filing fees shall be calculated and provided when the signed document is returned to the City for signatures and filing.

*** This fee does not include the cost of filing fees. Filing fees shall be determined at the time of final document submittal and will be required prior to filing.
