(2) Special Review

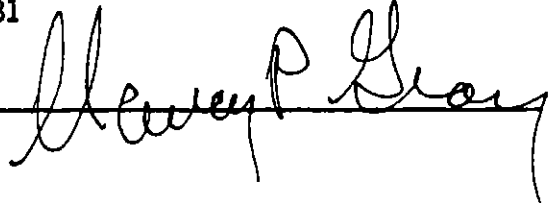

- (a) Special review proceedings shall begin with the filing of an application for a group home use, submitted to the Planning Office. The Planning and Zoning Board shall conduct a public hearing and approve, disapprove, or approve with conditions the group home use. The decision of the Planning and Zoning Board may be appealed to the City Council pursuant to the provisions in Chapter 2 of the Code of the City of Fort Collins.
- (b) In order to prevent the concentration of group homes and the potential negative impact that may be caused to a neighborhood by a high concentration of this type of facility, a group home in the R-L or R-E zone should not generally be located closer than 1/3 mile from any other group home, unless a physical barrier, such as an arterial street or highway, railroad tracks, waterway, commercial district, topographical change, or other characteristic would avoid concentration of group homes.

This provision is intended to ensure that the limited capacity of a neighborhood's existing social structure to accommodate group homes is not exceeded, and further, to protect such homes from over-concentration within one neighborhood thereby inadvertently recreating an institutional setting.

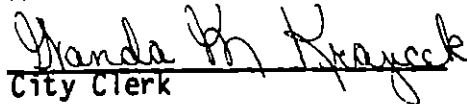

- (c) The size, scale and general appearance of a group home shall be consistent with the general physical character of the neighborhood in which it is located.
