

ORDINANCE NO. 4, SERIES OF 1909.

RELATING TO BUCKET SHOPS.

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Fort Collins,
Colorado:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation, either as principal or agent, to maintain or operate a "bucket shop" as herein defined, within the corporate limits of the city of Fort Collins.

Section 2. A bucket shop is a place wherein are published, from information received as the same occur, the fluctuating prices of stocks, bonds, petroleum, cotton, grains or provisions, in trades made or offered to be made on regular and lawful boards of exchange, and wherein the person carrying on the bucket shop, either as principal or agent, pretends to buy or sell, or goes through the form of buying ^{or} selling, to any person or persons any one of said commodities at a certain price fixed by or according to the aforesaid prices posted or published, but wherein neither party actually buys or sells the same.

Section 3. Each day's maintenance of a bucket shop as herein defined shall be deemed a separate offense.

Section 4. Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred ($100) Dollars, nor more than three hundred ($300) dollars, and costs of suit.

Passed and adopted, signed and approved this 21 day of June, 1909.
