

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in 1872 more than a million trees were planted in Nebraska to celebrate the first Arbor Day; and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world; and

WHEREAS, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS, trees can reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen, and provide habitat for wildlife; and

WHEREAS, trees can help offset the greenhouse effect by turning carbon dioxide, the primary cause of global warming, into life-giving oxygen; and

WHEREAS, the planting of trees in Fort Collins will also help conserve energy use by shading and cooling buildings and pavement; and

WHEREAS, Fort Collins has been recognized as a Tree City USA by the National Arbor Day Foundation for twenty years.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ray Martinez, Mayor of the City of Fort Collins, do hereby proclaim April 12 -23 designating local and national recognition for in the city of Fort Collins and urge all citizens to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands, and to support our city's urban forestry program by planting trees for present and future generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 20th day of April, A.D. 1999.
