Plaintiff(s) RORY HEATH v. Defendant(s) CITY OF FORT COLLINS CITY COUNCIL et al.	△ COURT USE ONLY △ Case Number: 2018CV125 Division: 3B Courtroom:
Order Granting Second Extension of Time

Plaintiff Rory Heath moves for a second extension of time to file his opening brief. He seeks 21 additional days and states that he has multiple health issues that prevent him from prosecuting this action. The Court grants the motion and plaintiff shall have 21 days from today to file his opening brief. No additional extensions of time will be granted. This action is over one year old and it must reach resolution.

Plaintiff shall file all pleadings in the following format: he shall double space his documents, using a 12-point font and 1" margins. He also must comply with the page limitations under Colo. R. Civ. P. 121.

Lastly, plaintiff continues to claim that, in addition to representing himself, he's "acting on behalf of other concerned residents and parties." And he styled the case that way. Plaintiff, who's not an attorney, can't represent anyone other than himself. Accordingly, he shall not claim that he may do so, in pleadings or otherwise, and the Court orders him to style the case as follows:

Rory Heath,

Plaintiff
