NOTICE REGARDING SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff Stacy Lynne files this notice to remind the Court and the Defendant that Plaintiff does not receive court documents via electronic filing. Mailing times via USPS from the Court to Plaintiff can take up to 10 days, and even longer when including holiday closures. Mailing times via USPS from the Defendant can take up to seven days, and even longer when including holiday closures.

Plaintiff received a jury summons for September 3, 2019. Because of the jury summons, Plaintiff had to reschedule a 10-day out-of-state research project to accommodate the potential requirement for jury service. Therefore, Plaintiff will be out of state for the 10 days prior to the hearing on attorney fees that is scheduled for September 17, 2019, and she will not have access to USPS mail.

If the Court or the Defendant makes any changes to the hearing date and/or time, or if the Court or the Defendant file any documents in this case, please email and/or call the Plaintiff directly so that she is informed and can prepare for any necessary changes.

Respectfully filed on Friday, September 6, 2019.

Stacy Lynne
