I'm sure you know 20280 is approved now. 20292 is waiting for some changes--manufacturer additions I believe.

Hi Elizabeth,

Just a reminder that Req 20280 has been awaiting approval since 6/17; req 20292 since 6/18. Both of these will go out for faxquotes; so you may want to nudge your approver to move them along for you.

Thanks,

Subject: Purchasing Magazine Online - Analysts cut forecasts for 2004 prices key metals

Ed Bonnette (ebonnette@fcgov.com) has sent you an article.

Personal message:

This article is the only one I found that compares current copper prices ($1.26/lb) to 2003 prices (avg $.81/lb for the year). That's about a 55% increase, consistent with what we are seeing on copper tubing.

Analysts cut forecasts for 2004 prices key metals
