Fort Collins building permit records indicate that the building or portion thereof as authorized by the building permit issued for the address listed above is occupied or being used without having obtained a "Certificate of Occupancy" (CO) or "Letter of Completion" (LOC). Such unauthorized occupancy or use is in violation of the applicable Fort Collins building codes. The contractor of record and/or property owner(s) is hereby notified:

Either a CO or LOC authorizing occupancy or use must be obtained not later than the end of business day, Tuesday, June 04, 2002

Failure to comply by the date specified without prior approval for an extension may result in one or more of the following actions:

1. Utilities disconnected.
2. A disciplinary hearing against the contractor of record.
3. An order to vacate the building.
4. A court summons issued to the owner and/or contractor of record.

Contact the Fort Collins Building and Zoning Department to determine whether any required approvals or conditions remain in order to obtain the necessary CO or LOC.
