Ticket Sales Update

	91-92 Total	92-93 to date
Showstoppers Series	2239	2216
Dance Series	561	440
Childrens Series	2330	2410
Film Series	943	857

Special Events

Two additional concerts have been booked for this Fall.

"Yesterday" - the Beatles - October 23rd

"The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra" - November 4th

"Artwear '92'"

The first annual fundraiser for Lincoln Center visual arts was a big success. It was held in Canyon West and sold out to 452 attendees. Approximately $12,000 of apparel was sold (Visual Arts received 40% of gross). The percentage, plus ticket sales netted almost $9,000 to the visual arts. Gary Hixon Interiors produced the event with the Center.

Birthday Ball

Saturday, October 10th - Carnival in Venice. Tickets $150 per couple, $75 single.

WAAA Conference

Mark Breimhorst and David Siever attended the Western Alliance of Arts Administrators Conference in Albuquerque September 8-13. This is first booking conference and involves Western states.

Because of strong season ticket sales we are planning to add an extra performance for each event on Showstopper Series. Three events of classical/new music and one theatre event will be added to three dance events to form a new seven event series for 1993-94.

Dance Series

Four downtown restaurants: Bisetti's, Coopersmith's, Jay Bistro and Jefferson Street Station have each donated $1,000 to underwrite the Lincoln Center Dance Series. Rio Grande is still considering the proposal.

EXHIBITS

The traveling show DREAM MAKERS - Images a children's art exhibit by Four Corners Area students, primarily Navajos, is on display through December 31, 1992. These forty works are accompanied by written essays on dreams, ambitions and personal views. It's a remarkable show and has been well received thus far.

Colorado Urban Wildlife exhibit was featured at the Environmental Fair September 19th. 300+ people toured the exhibit during the fair.

Fifty Cache La Poudre commemorative fine art posters have been sold at $10.58. These popular posters have been sold at New West Fest - Year of the River booth, Environmental Fair in the Year of the River room and the museum. Notecards and postcards are also for sale.

STAFF

Karin Eberhart announces the arrival of Toby Robert born Sept. 16th.

Volunteer recognition breakfast is scheduled for September 24, 1992 at the Lincoln Center. To date, volunteers have contributed 3,000 hours.

The Development Officer position will be posted the first part of October. This half time position will assist Joy in professional development to meet our goal of diversifying the museum's financial base. The staff has been trained on the software program - Word Perfect Beg. & Intermediate. Joy met with City Manager - Steve Burkett in August to get acquainted and discuss museum, city and community goals.

PHYSICAL FACILITY

A couple of designs for the building of professional staff offices have been evaluated. The designs, pending the approval of the gift shop supplemental by city council members, have flexibility to incorporate the location of the gift shop as well as a new receptionist area. Cultural Resources Board members will receive a presentation by Joy Poole at tonight's CRB meeting.

PROGRAMS

The AZTEC trip to Denver Museum of Natural History for Sept. 28th. The first AZTEC lecture series in conjunction with the library attracted 30 folks. The museum wishes to thank Liz Brandis and John Pfiennenberger for their cooperation and support of this museum event. Tickets are still available for Oct. 10th and Nov. 12th.

The fall program list has been distributed and is attached for your convenience. These public programs revolve around the Colorado Urban Wildlife Exhibit.
