

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on October 11, 1890, the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was officially organized by 18 women in Washington, DC; and

WHEREAS, the Daughters of the American Revolution is a service organization made up of approximately 3,000 chapters in all 50 states and many foreign countries; and

WHEREAS, on April 19, 1908, Cache la Poudre Chapter, NSDAR, was organized by 12 ladies in Fort Collins, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, on July 4, 1908, Cache la Poudre Chapter, NSDAR, was granted its Charter; and

WHEREAS, on July 4, 2008, Cache la Poudre Chapter, NSDAR, has 89 active members;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Doug Hutchinson, Mayor of the City of Fort Collins, do hereby recognize 2008 as the 100th anniversary of the

and ask the community to voice its appreciation to the members of Cache la Poudre Chapter for their efforts to preserve and share historical windows to our ancestors who selflessly served in the Revolutionary War, 1775 to 1783.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 1st day of July, A.D. 2008.
