

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, the City of Fort Collins employs more than 2,000 such public servants, who provide diverse services to our community, ranging from utility lineworkers and building inspectors to customer service representatives, youth sport coaches, traffic engineers and more; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Doug Hutchinson, Mayor of the City of Fort Collins, do hereby proclaim May 3-9, 2010, as in honor of the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county, and city levels. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels - federal, state, county and municipal.

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 4th day of May, A.D. 2010.
