

SUBJECT

First Reading of Ordinance No. 050, 2010, Appropriating Unanticipated Grant Revenue in the General Fund for Police Services and Providing for the Transfer of Matching Funds Previously Appropriated in the Police Services Operating Budget.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The City has received additional grant funds for Police Services. A grant received from the Colorado Division of Criminal Justice (DCJ), Juvenile Diversion, provides additional funds in the amount of $6,142 for the continuation of Restorative Justice Services. These additional funds were awarded from unspent funds returned to DCJ from other agencies. An in-kind match of $2,047 is required and has been met by donated administrative support from the 8th Judicial District Probation Department. Additional funds of $1,965 are needed to meet expenditure requirements of the Division of Criminal Justice Juvenile Accountability Incentive Block Grant (JABG), which also funds Restorative Justice Services. This need will be met by appropriating funds from prior program income.

BACKGROUND / DISCUSSION

Restorative Justice Services (RJS) and its two programs, RESTORE for shoplifting offenses, and Restorative Justice Conferencing Program (RJCP) for all other offenses, has been grant funded since its inception in 2000. Council accepts grant funds each year from Colorado Division of Criminal Justice and other grant funding agencies to support Restorative Justice Services. The RJC programs are supported by three grants and funds from the City. Since it began, Restorative Justice Services has provided a restorative justice alternative to more than 1,700 young people.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The additional grant money in the amount of $6,142 from Division of Criminal Justice, Juvenile Diversion Grants, provides funding for the continuation of Restorative Justice Services. The appropriation of prior program income will meet the spending requirements of the Division of Criminal Justice JABG grant.

SUSTAINABILITY: ECONOMIC, ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL IMPACTS

Environment

There is no known or measurable impact on the environment. RJCP meetings and circles are held primarily at the RJS Offices, 112 North Howes Street. RESTORE sessions are held at Plymouth Congregational Church once a month. The use of the space is donated by the church. In RESTORE, education about the impact of shoplifting on the environment (excess packaging to prevent theft that ends up in the landfill) is part of the program, so there may be some future positive impact on the environment if fewer youth continue to shoplift. Occasionally, there may be a positive impact on the environment when young people are educated about when and how their actions have an environmental impact. The programs have no known negative impact on the environment.

Social Impact

The objective of the RJS programs is to educate young people who have committed chargeable offenses in the City of Fort Collins about how others are impacted by their actions, words and behaviors. The intention is that young people, who understand how they, their families, friends and community are harmed by their actions, will make better future decisions and not commit the same or similar crime again. Reducing future criminal behavior and keeping young people out of the justice system, both contribute positively to a safer and healthier community. Without grant funding and the support of the City, Restorative Justice Services would not be a service available to young people and their families, the courts, law enforcement and our community.

Economic

Diverting youth and young adults from the justice system relieves pressure on Fort Collins Municipal Court and the 8th Judicial District Court and saves courts personnel time and money. Reducing future shoplifting, theft and other criminal behavior by young people who have participated in the RJS programs will have a long-term positive impact on the economic health of the community by keeping young people out of the justice system, thereby improving their future employment options and encouraging young people to not shoplift themselves and to actively encourage other youth not to steal.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends adoption of the Ordinance on First Reading.

RESTORE

A Restorative Justice Program for Merchants, Community and Young Shoplifters

WHAT IS IT?

The RESTORE Program provides a voluntary opportunity for youth and young adults who have shoplifted to deal with their charge in a way that is meaningful to them and the community.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

When a youth is referred by the Fort Collins Municipal Court or Larimer County District Attorney's Office, a RESTORE intake form is completed. The youth and a parent or guardian (if youth is under age 18) attend an arraignment, two RESTORE sessions and complete a contract, as described below. A pre and post survey is also administered as part of the program.

RESTORE Session #1 has three parts and will take approximately 3 hours.

Part 1 - Speakers discuss the impact of shoplifting on the merchant community, law enforcement, the court system, families, and the larger community. They will also hear other youth speak about how shoplifting has affected them, their peers, and their families.

Part 2 - The youth and their parents will meet in smaller groups to talk about the incidents they were involved with and how they have been affected by this incident. This group will also include other young shoplifters, their parents, community members, and merchant representatives, and will be facilitated by RESTORE Volunteers.

Part 3 - When the group sessions are complete, each youth and with his/her parent or guardian develop and sign a contract to repair the harm to the victim, the community, their family and themselves, including eight hours community service. They will also sign up for a contract completion date and time to return to Session #2.

RESTORE Session #2 will take approximately one hour.

About one month after Session #1, the youth will return to the RESTORE program with all of their completed contract items. They will meet with a small group of volunteers who will review the contract and verification of items completed.

BY PARTICIPATING IN THE RESTORE PROGRAM, YOUTH CAN:

- learn more about shoplifting and how it affects merchants, community, families, peers
- repair the harm done by the incident in a meaningful way
- make choices about the consequences for their actions
- have their theft charge dismissed upon successful completion of the program

FEE: Cost is $50 (cash or money order made out to City of Fort Collins: Restorative Justice). A reduced fee is available for families who qualify. A $25 administrative fee is added for rescheduling a session.

ATTENDANCE AT BOTH SESSIONS IS MANDATORY. IF YOU DO NOT ATTEND YOUR SCHEDULED SESSIONS, YOU WILL BE EXPELLED FROM THE PROGRAM AND REFERRED BACK TO COURT.

Repairing the harm of crime for victims, young offenders and community

WHAT IS IT?

The Restorative Justice Conferencing Program (RJCP) provides a voluntary opportunity for young people (age 10-20) who have committed misdemeanor offenses to deal with their charge in a way that is meaningful to them and the community.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The Fort Collins Municipal Court or Larimer County District Attorney's Office has referred you. You will attend a court arraignment and meet with RJCP staff, who will explain the RJCP program. If you decide to participate, you will complete preliminary forms and sign up for the program. You will also be asked to take a survey, which is confidential and used for grant purposes. If you are under 18 years of age, your parent/guardian must attend the arraignment and the RJCP meetings with you.

Restorative Justice Conferencing Program (RJCP)

RJCP consists of three meetings, totaling 4-6 hours, and contract obligations to fulfill in between.

Meeting #1 – (1-1.5 hours) You and your parent/guardian will meet with RJCP facilitators for a preconference meeting. At this meeting you will learn more about the RJCP process and will prepare for the upcoming RJ circle. You will discuss the incident and explore your thoughts and feelings about the incident and who has been impacted by it. Your parent will also discuss how the incident has impacted the family. You will have homework to develop ideas on how to repair the harm caused by the incident.

Meeting #2 – (2-3 hours) You and your parent/guardian will meet with the victim/victim representative, other offenders (if there are any), community representatives and the RJCP facilitators in a face-to-face meeting. The discussion will focus on who has been harmed by the incident, how they have been harmed, and what can be done to repair the harm. The circle will develop a contract to address repairing the harm caused by the incident. The contract will include a minimum of 20 restorative hours for you to fulfill.

Meeting #3 – (1 hour) You and your parent/guardian will return for a follow-up interview with RJCP staff and/or volunteers when your contract obligations are complete (usually about a month). You must bring written verification of all contract items to this interview. You will review your understanding of the harm done by the incident, and any experiences you have had or things you have learned through the process. Other participants from the circle will be invited to attend the interview, and may or may not be present. You will also complete the survey taken at the court arraignment. If all contract items are complete and verified, you will have completed the program.

BY PARTICIPATING IN THE RJCP PROGRAM, YOU CAN:

- learn more about your offense and how it affected the victim, community, your family, yourself
- repair the harm done by the incident in a meaningful way
- make choices about the consequences of your actions
- have your charge dismissed upon successful completion of the program

FEE: Cost is $50 (cash or money order to: City of Fort Collins – RJ). We do NOT accept checks. A reduced fee is available for families who qualify.
