

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Colorado State University and the City of Fort Collins seek to celebrate and promote the traditions and spirit that make the college experience at the University great and unique; and

WHEREAS the City recognizes that the primary colors of green and gold and the University's insignias are symbolic representations of the traditions and spirit of the educational mission and experience at the University; and

WHEREAS, the Fort Collins community is proud of Colorado State University's educational mission and experience and the colors and insignias that symbolize them; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes that the University's colors and insignias play a fundamental role in their efforts to promote and market the educational experience at the University by reinforcing its mission and messages; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes that the wearing of apparel bearing the institution's approved insignias encourages solidarity among its diverse constituencies and will strengthen the spirit of cooperation within the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karen Weitkunat, Mayor of Fort Collins, do hereby proclaim Friday of each and every work week this school year as and encourage all supporters to wear apparel bearing the colors and/or insignias of the University on these days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 16th day of August, A.D. 2011.
