

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Fort Collins has a long history as a community that values law and order and has created a safe place to live, work, learn, and play; and

WHEREAS, throughout our history, the citizens of Fort Collins have been protected by the many men and women who have made selfless sacrifice as law-enforcement officers and who have dedicated themselves to keeping the citizens of Fort Collins safe; and

WHEREAS, there is great value for the citizens of Fort Collins to learn about the lives and circumstances of those involved with the criminal justice system, including those who have enforced the law and those who have broken it; and

WHEREAS, each year, the Cemetery Stroll, the city's longest running living history event, sponsored by the City of Fort Collins Senior Center, honors a selection of those individuals who made history in Fort Collins and are now resting at Grandview Cemetery; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme for the Cemetery Stroll is "Law and Disorder".

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karen Weitkunat, Mayor of the City of Fort Collins, do hereby proclaim September 15, 2012 as in Fort Collins and encourage the citizens of this community to honor those who went before us by attending our City's oldest and largest living history event, the Cemetery Stroll, at Grandview Cemetery.

LAW AND DISORDER DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 4th day of September, A.D. 2012.

Mayor

ATTEST:

City Clerk