PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, discretion is a critical personal quality needed for lasting success; and

WHEREAS, we desire to build upon our heritage and make Fort Collins a place where families are strong, homes and streets are safe, education is effective, business is productive, neighbors care about one another, and citizens are free to make wise choices for their lives and families; and

WHEREAS, we recognized that the health of this community depends upon all of our citizens using discretion in their daily relations with their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, the tranquillity and orderly operation and development of our City demand that we monitor these key features of DISCRETION: considering the consequences of our actions, choosing our words carefully, practicing good manners, communicating respect for others, learning from our mistakes, and avoiding compromising and conflicting situations; and

WHEREAS, by following these suggestions, we as citizens individually and collectively can make positive contributions to one another, seek and find long-term relationships, build trust and friendship among our fellow citizens, help others to succeed in their expectations, and carefully apply the standards of good character to all of our activities and associations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Doug Hutchinson, Mayor of the City of Fort Collins, do hereby proclaim the character trait of

DISCRETION

“avoiding words, actions and attitudes which create negative consequences, while proceeding purposely toward positive goals and outcomes”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Fort Collins this 6th of June, A.D. 2006.
